Lung Cancer Screening How to Save 712 Kentuckians This Year!

Access webinar today at www.cvent.com/d/t5q7b2

Anthony D. Weaver, MD
University of Kentucky
School of Medicine

Dr. Weaver is a general internist who inherited a pulmonary clinic when he began practice in 1986. Horrified by the large number of clinic patients with incurable lung cancer, he dedicated his career to addressing Kentucky's top cause of cancer deaths.

Angela Criswell, MA
Senior Manager of Medical Outreach
Lung Cancer Alliance

Ms. Criswell is an expert on low-dose CT (LDCT) screening policy implementation and provides insights from both national and Kentucky perspectives.

Topics include:

- Screening eligibility
- Shared decision making and other reimbursement rules
- Special considerations for low-dose CT
- Handling abnormal findings
- Latest info on developing issues
- Answers to the "Top 5" questions from LDCT screening centers

A $100 Amazon gift card will be sent to the first 100 eligible Kentucky providers who participate and complete a registration survey and a post-event survey. Those eligible are practicing primary care providers, cardiologists, pulmonologists and/or lung cancer screening navigators.
