

KPPAC 100 is a program designed to promote physician leadership and develop KPPAC into a $100,000 PAC. By joining this effort, physicians will amplify their voice in the election process, assist in electing pro-medicine candidates and, as a result, have greater impact on the practice of medicine.

RECOGNITION BEGINS AT $1,000 DONATIONS

All contributions will go toward the $100,000 goal. Individuals who contribute or fundraise at least $1,000 will receive added benefits.

The Kentucky Physicians Political Action Committee ("KPPAC"), located at 9200 Shelbyville Road, Suite 615, Louisville, KY 40222, is organized for the benefit of state political candidates and activities. All contributions to KPPAC are completely voluntary, and KMA will never require a minimum contribution amount. You may refuse to contribute to KPPAC without any fear of reprisal. KPPAC may only accept contributions pursuant to Kentucky state election laws, and any contributions made by an individual or entity which do not conform with the requirements of the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance will be returned to the contributor.
